August 6, 1997

(An occasional newsletter for Lambda Seniors and friends)

COMING EVENTS

POTLUCK, August 13th, 6:30PM in the back yard garden of Bil Gingrich and Karl Green, 150 Baxter Avenue, Sacramento (tele:927-2029). Yes, it is the second Wednesday of the month!

On these warm evenings Bill and Karl's yard is wonderful (as are they, of course), filled with bedded and potted plants in bloom, shaded, a delightful place to just kick back and relax. These men are experienced hosts who, are not above accepting a hand or two in setting the place up. If you feel so inclined, give them a call or just show up a bit early with a "I'd like to helpful, what can I do?" look on your face.
Directions are on the reverse side of the newsletter.

CARD GAMES Several members are interested in regular meetings in one another's homes or apartments for card games (Canasta has been mentioned by the most folks, so far). John Rona is co-ordinating and would be happy to hear from you (tele:427-5818).

TAP DOGS It is not too early to find out if there is enough interest among us to try for a group discount rate to see this Broadway Series production in October sponsored by the Sacramento Light Opera Association. Six Australian lads from a steel town north of Sydney have gained a huge following, worldwide, with their version of what tap is all about. Interested? Call Didier J. (441-1590) by the night of the potluck.

THE LAMBDA PLAYERS have put together an exciting collection of plays for the 1997-98 season, beginning with Jeffrey (Sept 12th through 27th). When we go to any Lambda Players production and identify ourselves as EAGLES they well send us a $2 rebate! (It will help with the printing, postage and stuff that is now being donated)..(Of course, we will then have to have someone volunteer to be a treasurer!!!). Bob Grummons is the box office manager of the Players, and an EAGLE himself, has made us a couple of other offers (buy all the tickets for a particular production at $7 each and sell them at whatever price we think is fair, etc. We will find some time at the potluck to mull this one and the other offers over a bit). Coming up next will be, Lesbian Laugh-Fest, (October 17th and 18th).

Congratulations to both Mary Stoscke and Didier Jaen on their respective art shows. Mary presented her work in a variety of mediums at a Sutterville Road gallery. Didier's work was featured at the Open Book. He will have a showing at Santi's Cafe', 3262 J St. August 15th and continuing for six weeks.

Willis Roman has volunteered to call those folks who asked to put on our mailing list at the Freedom Fair. He likes the personal touch. We all do! Alan, Dee and John are the rest of the phone crew.

WALKING GROUP Lise Talley joined us for our last Saturday walk. It was good to see her again! There were ten of us!. We walk every Saturday at 9AM. Call Larry for details (991-2420).
